

Britta is a dedicated performer, choreographer, and educator whose lifelong career in dance has taken her across the country and into large-scale productions on both the West and East Coasts. Drawing from her extensive professional experience, Britta's teaching centers on musical connection, artistic expression, and empowering dancers to bring out the best in both themselves and their performances. Known for her focused, driven approach paired with a positive, uplifting presence, she creates an environment where dancers feel both challenged and inspired.

Britta has had the privilege of performing with companies including Enticing Entertainment, Confetti Entertainment, S2SDC, and Las Vegas All Stars. Through these experiences, she has developed a versatile, expressive performance style grounded in intention and emotion.

In her master classes and workshops, Britta focuses on helping dancers explore musicality, expand expressive range, and reconnect with their individual strengths as artists. Her teaching approach fosters confidence, creativity, and joy in movement—inviting students to move beyond steps and into authentic, engaging performance.
